

Workshop: A Scientific Career in medical research
What does it take to become a scientist in medical research?
Stories and Advice from a clinical and fundamental perspective

October 10, 2019
ROOM MARCELLE-LACOSTE, 9th FLOOR, CHU SAINTE-JUSTINE
13:00 – 16:00

AGENDA

13:00- 13:15	Clinical Research Welcome and Introduction – Dr. Cheri Deal
13:15 - 13:45	Dr. Susan Samuel Becoming a clinician scientist: What does it take?
Break
14:00 -14:10	Basic Science Research Introduction – Pr. Mathieu Dehaes
14:10 – 14:45	Pr. Daniel Sinnett Becoming an independent investigator in medical research: advice from a basic scientist
14:45 – 15:45	Panel Discussion Chaired by Pr. Geneviève Mailhot and Janetta Bijl Panelists include: Dr. Susan Samuel, Pr. Daniel Sinnett, Pr. Mathieu Dehaes, Pr. Sylvie Le May, Dr. Anne Monique Nuyt
15:45 – 16:00	Summary and Closure of the Workshop